Monday, August 13, 2012

To:
Student ID:

We have reviewed the appeal of your ineligibility for financial aid due to unsatisfactory academic progress for the current academic years of 12-13. We have made the following determination:

_____ Your appeal is approved.

_____ Your appeal is approved provided you comply with one of the following conditions:

- You may take one classes only in the next term in which you enroll. Please meet with your Academic Advisor to determine the class you will take. You must submit a letter to the Financial Aid Office from your Academic Advisor confirming the class you are allowed to take along with a copy of your schedule. One class is no more than 1-5 credit hours. No financial will be posted your account until all documentation is received. Also, you must successfully complete this class.

- You may take two classes only in the next term in which you enroll. Please meet with your Academic Advisor to determine the classes you will take. You must submit a letter to the Financial Aid Office from your Academic Advisor confirming the class you are allowed to take along with a copy of your schedule. Two classes are no more than 6-8 credit hours. No financial will be posted your account until all documentation is received. Also, you must successfully complete this class.

- You may take three classes only in the next term in which you enroll. Please meet with your Academic Advisor to determine the classes you will take. You must submit a letter to the Financial Aid Office from your Academic Advisor confirming the class you are allowed to take along with a copy of your schedule. Three classes are no more than 9 - 11 credit hours. No financial will be posted your account until all documentation is received. Also, you must successfully complete this class.

_____ You have exceeded your maximum hours required to complete your Program of Study. However, your appeal has been approved provided you meet with your Faculty Advisor and have the classes approved. You must submit to the financial aid office a copy your Intent to Graduate Application listing the classes on your degree audit required for graduation along with a copy of your schedule. No financial will be posted your account until all documentation is received. You can only take the classes approved by your Advisor. Also, you must submit an appeal each semester until you graduate.
Your appeal has been approved. However, the balance on your account must be paid before you can register for classes.

Your appeal has been denied. You must pay for the next semester in which you enroll. You must successfully complete your classes and have the appropriate cumulative grade point average and/or meet cumulative 67% of your attempted hours before you will be considered for future financial aid.

Beginning July 1, 2012, duration of Pell eligibility is reduced from the equivalent of 18 full-time semesters to the equivalent of 12 full-time semesters. Therefore, your appeal has been denied. You have exceeded the maximum number of hours allowed to receive federal aid (Pell Grant funds).

Reminders: The Department of Education has issued new rules beginning July 1, 2012

- Duration of Pell eligibility is reduced from the equivalent of 18 full-time semesters to the equivalent of 12 full-time semesters.

- All students will receive federal aid for one retake only for a previously passed class. However, if the class is failed, a retake will continue to receive aid as long as the class in on the students degree audit

- The Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Standard has changed. Students who do not meet SAP have:
  - One semester of a SAP warning;
  - If not meeting SAP the second semester will be suspended and allowed to appeal for probation. You may be placed on an academic plan; and
  - If not meeting SAP the third semester will be suspended and paid only if meeting pre-determined academic plan

Comments:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________